King David defeated the Philistines by following God's strategy concerning the battle (2 Samuel 5:23-25). God never tells people to sin, so the Israelites who followed God's commands to wage war were not sinning. Killing in war cannot be equated with murder. This is not to say that killing in war has no effects.

My war : killing time in Iraq (Book, 2005) [WorldCat.org]
I recently finished reading Colby Buzzell's My War - Killing Time in Iraq. It's being billed as something between "Catch 22" and "Dispatches". Well, while Buzzell writes cynically about some of the missions, the soldiers, and the Iraqis, it's easy to see that he really cares about them, too. This dichotomy is the very definition of Colby Buzzell.
